Often those who appear most eager for change, oppose it most stubbornly when their own institutions are involved.—JOHN W. GARDNER.

We should be more concerned about people wasting their lives than wasting their time.—ERIC HOFFER.

Human beings are incalculable, and he is a fool who says he knows what a man is capable of.—SOMERSET MAUGHAM.

Your unused talents give you no advantage over one who has no talents at all.—ANON.

The dinosaur became extinct because he carried everything with him—he had a one-ton tail to knock down a banana.—R. BUCKMINSTER FULLER.

To give up the task of reforming society is to give up one's responsibility as a free man. The task itself is endless, and a large part of it, sometimes the whole of it, must be performed anew by each succeeding generation.—ALAN PATON.
